

I ask you not to limit satellite radio's ability to offer additional programs, such as local traffic and weather. I travel extensively, and I find it easier to locate my satellite channels than to search out a local broadcast channel in the area. Local information via satellite radio is a benefit to me.